What is the big idea?

MEN have all kinds of reasons for liking Spur Cigarettes. Some like them because they're mighty classy-looking—that brown-and-silver package is an eye-winner. Some like them because the paper is crimped—no paste to taste. Some like them because they're a full-packed cigarette—nothing "skinny" about them. Some like Spurs because they're twenty for twenty cents—the rock bottom price for the highest possible quality.

But what they all shout about and pass along is that they have found at last a cigarette with that good old tobacco taste that lingers in the memory.

Yes, sir, you can sure taste the good Oriental and home grown tobaccos—and that's the big idea back of Spur Cigarettes.

Now, folks, just don't wait, but try a package of Spur Cigarettes today. It's not as though you were buying a limousine. And if you do find in Spur the cigarette you have been wanting—something that just strikes the spot—it will be the best buy you've made since Hector was a pup.

MARYLAND'S WOMAN VOTERS TO BE INSTRUCTED BY LEAGUE

Will Be Told What They Can Do With Ballot, Not What They Get Out of It, Says Worker.

BALTIMORE, September 13 (Special).—To tell the woman voters of Maryland what they can do with their ballot rather than what they can get out of it will be the aim of Miss Lavinia M. Engle, who has been selected by the executive committee of the League of Woman Voters to organize citizenship classes for the league in the state.

Miss Engle, who is a native of Montgomery county, came to Baltimore this week to map out plans for organizing the league, preliminary to calling the organization meeting next month. She pointed out that her object will be first to acquaint the women with the purely mechanical work of registering and voting for the fall election, and secondly, to offer instruction in the citizenship classes as to why they should vote and to give them a clear idea of the things upon which they are expected to vote.

"The courses in the citizenship schools will be of the most elementary nature," declared Miss Engle, "so that no woman need feel any hesitancy about attending. Our purpose, after all, is to supply a political background which will serve to foster in the women a feeling of the responsibilities of their citizenship." Next week Miss Engle will begin the actual work of organizing citizenship classes in the city and every county in the state. These classes, she stated, will not be limited in number, but will be open to all. In her work among women she has noticed that practically every woman who is given the vote is conscientious in her use of it.

"It is almost pitiful," she said, "to see how eager the women are for information about the political situation. They must know everything about a party before they will attempt to induce others to vote for it. Never once have I heard a woman say: 'What am I going to get out of this?'"

Interest Outside of Cities.
The women in the counties have evinced much more interest in political affairs than the city women so far.

Five meetings have been arranged for the women of Montgomery county already, stated Miss Engle. She declared that the women there have determined to prevent any effort on the part of politicians to buy up the negro women's votes, and practical efforts to fit the colored woman for voting, as well as the white woman, will be inaugurated.

The Woman's Club of Hyattsville has also called for a speaker at a meeting there, and meetings of many of the women's clubs already organized, according to Miss Engle, are being held in the counties to discuss "politics" so far as women are concerned.

Miss Engle was field secretary of the National Suffrage Association at one time and later was the campaign manager in Texas, when the women there won the primary suffrage. At that time Miss Engle could have voted in the Texas primaries, but she refused, preferring to cast her first ballot in Maryland.

She was later a speaker for suffrage and the liberty loans in about sixteen states, and during the war served as a canteen worker with the Young Men's Christian Association in France. She has just returned from North Carolina, where she helped in the fight for ratification.

SHOOTS 2 SISTERS DEAD WITH THE SAME BULLET

Crazed Man in Uniform Fires Rifle at Auto—Caught by Posse.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., September 12.—Two sisters, Misses Sadie and Susie Selter, were shot to death in an automobile near here early yesterday by a crazed man in a United States Army uniform. Soon afterward a military posse captured Mike Marakovich, twenty-six years old, after he had been shot and badly wounded by one of its members. Marakovich was recently employed in the Haritan arsenal. He is in a serious condition in a hospital here. A single bullet killed both sisters, the police say.

The sisters were being driven home in an automobile by Frank Whitlock, who said they were accosted by a man who carried a rifle and seemed under the influence of liquor. Whitlock said he tried to persuade the man to go away, but that he refused, fired a shot at the car, and ran away. Whitlock rushed the sisters to a hospital, where they died. Hospital physicians said the bullet passed through both the girls' bodies, striking Sadie, who was in the front, first, and then her sister in the rear of the car.
